

COOKIES DISCLAIMER

Cookies are small files stored by your web browser on behalf of a website and returned to the site on request.

We do not use cookies to track or collect personal information or to track the web pages you visit.

These pieces of information are used to improve services for you through, for example:

Enabling a service to recognise your device so you don't have to input the same information several time during one visit.

Recognising that you may already have given a username and password so you don't have to input it for every web page requested.

If you prefer not to receive cookies you may turn them off in your internet browser or set it to ask you before accepting cookies.

Please note some pages may not function properly when cookies are disabled.
